Dec. 19-1957.

The Aurora Christmas party was held Dec. 19th. at the parsonage with Mary Kumsito, Lulu Thompson and Mrs. Tanner as hostesses.

Mary Kumsito welcomed the members and guests, and stated she hoped the Christmas party at the parsonage, would be an annual affair; she also led the opening devotions.

The (only) business meeting was omited, only the minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The christmas atmosphere prevailed throughout the rooms, with decorations of pine branches, candles and a beautiful lighted christmas tree in front of the large window in the living room.

The dining room table was festive with a large bowl of holly, with its red berries and flanked by 2 beautiful candles, and loaded with lovely christmas cookies & luscious salads.

Mary Kunnuits read the christmas story, and the group joined in with singing christmas carols.

Pastor Kunnuits also welcomed the Party to the parsonage and spoke on the True christmas spirit living in our hearts.

Christmas Greetings were received from Mrs. Lacey Aberdeen, with a $5.00 gift also from Ella Anderson, Seaside $5.00 gift, and Jennie Bamsby, $5.00 and N. Mecklem in memory of her mother $3.00. The secretary was to send thank you notes to the out of town members.

After the closing prayer, song & table song, the evening was spent socially.

A game, passing packages was enjoyed, and several lucky ones received nice prizes.

Then Santa appeared and delivered gifts to all present. Mrs. Kunisito was presented a gift from the club.

Then delicious cookies, coffee and salads were then served.

It was a lovely party and well attended, and enjoyed by all, and may the Good Lord grant us to meet again next year.

A vote of thanks was given the hostess.

Dec. 18th. 1958.

There was no business meeting held in December, but the annual Lovely Xmas Party, on the 18th. of Dec. held at the parsonage, as Mary Kunnuto stated last year she hoped this would be an annual affair, with Mary Kunnuto and Lilian Inniss as hostesses.

The rooms were festive in their array of beautiful candles, greens, and the beautiful lighted Xmas Tree, stood proudly in front of the living room window. An unusual display at xmas time, was the beautiful bouquet of camelias from Lillian Jackson's yard, which stood on the coffee table and was admired by all.

The dining table was centered with a bowl of gilded cones and green candles, and laden with delicious christmas cookies tarts and beautiful salads

Mary Kunnuto read the xmas story, second chapter of Luke followed by prayer and the group singing the benediction Miss Carole read greeting cards received from G. Lady Gibbons and a 5¢ gift to the club, also Ella Anderson from Seaside with 5¢ gift, also 15¢ gifts from Jane Bandy and Dorothy Mickelson in memory of her mother E. Lamont. Thanks your notes are to present to the end of term dances

After the closing prayer and taps group sang, the evening was spent socially

A game called the "Lucky word" was played by the group with several lucky winners, who received nice gifts

At this time Old St Nick arrived and presented each one with a lovely gift. A special gift was presented "Miss Accurate" in addition to the dinner ware.

And saw those delicious cakes of all kinds and tarts and salads and coffee were enjoyed by all.

In all the party was a lovely one, & enjoyed by all, and something that we all look forward too, and the Good Lord willing may we met again next year for our annual Xmas Party. at the Parsonage home of the hospitable Kuokkistos, Pastor & Mrs Kuokkisto.

The hostess were given a thank You for their hospitality and wonderful eats.

Dec. 19 1957

We gave thanks to the Lord for his willingness to grant us to meet again and commune lovely Christmas party again this year to which we had looked forward to with great anxiety. Thus held Dec 19-1957 at the Hospitable parish home of the Kennedies with the charming hostess Mary, assisted by Ingrid Ingrid, Lund, Emma

The guests and members were welcomed to the Christmas atmosphere that prevailed about the rooms by Mary, hoping we were having the happy time and glad to see so many present Mr. Karlsmen a former member from Portland, was present who spoke on the meaning of Immanuel that brought greetings from Mary Wilkinson who has been taken as former member

The rooms were festive in the Christmas decorations of green and candles over the lovely, lovelit tree standing near by the window and the living room with its decorations and bright lights shining to let us know that the Christ child was born for us.

The dancing Eddie with a white linen cloth entered with Red candles and gilded & green cones, was loaded with luscious salads, tarts cookies coffee bread

Ingrid Fugnet read the Christmas story, the group sang carols to accompany the story, she also read the Xmas prayer

The members responded very generously in bringing canned foods for distribution to those in need of our church members Olga Carlson, Ingrid Fugnet, Edith Lagerlof, Lulu Thompson and Hilma Lindberg were appointed to take care of this.

As has been done for years in the past a $35 Poinsettia was to be presented to the church.

Chaplain Mary Fumasetta led the closing ~~prayer~~ prayer - read sang about the day of Christmas also holding a prayer for our dear departed member Mrs Kantner.

Christmas greetings and gifts were received from our members were sent by Mrs Elma, Jack Ellis

The meeting of the Aurora Unit, with Chairman Ila Allen presiding, was opened with prayer song No. 2, followed by devotion and lighting candle. She read us the Word of the devotional program, Matthew 6: 19, 24-33.

The minutes of the December and December meetings were read and approved with slight corrections.

Treasurer Viola Thompson reported that she had turned over to the Grand Island Treasurer on December 31 to close the account for the Aurora Club. Her financial report showed a beginning balance of $35.74, receipts for 1960 of $1344.56 and expenditures of $1378.30, leaving a balance of $2.00 all of which had been transferred to the Grand Fund during the year.

Olga Hilpert reported a January 1, 1960 balance of $7.60, receipts for the year of $33.04, expenditures of $6.97, leaving a balance of $13.67 each December 31, 1960. She thanked all concerned for flower fund cheer and expressed appreciation for money gifts and love received from Ella Coulson.

It was announced that a memorial sale amounted to $18.1 on the 4th of June 1911 on the Young Building.

A letter was read from Sister Findley in which she expressed regret at having missed the December and January Meetings, and expressed her very sincere thanks to the members for the many nice things they have done for her during her illness. "I thank you" Mrs Findley also had come from Mrs Gaston for the box of goods sent her from the Chautauqua Co.

Miss Lillian Fredericks was welcomed as a new member.

Elma Amerine announced the congregational dinner the following Sunday put on by the L.C.I.Z., preceding the congregational Annual Meeting. She also stated that the Sisters had arranged to serve a supper on Friday, February 3, to which all women of the Church were asked to donate food.

The following committees for the ensuing year were appointed:

Telephone calling Committee for the Emporia Circle St. Circle Debs. Helen Hull, Kate Jackson, and Lillian Jackson.

It was moved and seconded that the Circle host sponsor a dessert sale on March 11. The motion carried. Circle Leona agreed to present the suggestion to the LCWA executive committee.

An invitation from the Emporia Guild of Barristers to attend their meeting on March 8 was accepted. The secretary was asked to send a note of acceptance at once and a letter telling how many would attend after the February meeting.

Mary Stimmel to give the Groups the remainder of their study courses for the year. They chose "Salvation Made Plain" to be ordered from the Lutheran Book House.

Each member was asked to sign a membership card for the LCWA.
